

Your First Song in GarageBand

1

Click on the Logic Pro X icon in the dock or launchpad. It looks like this:

2

Click Choose.

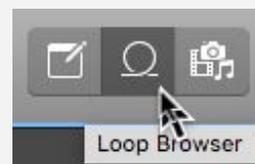

3

Click Create.

4

Click the loop browser in the top right (or press O on the keyboard.)

You're going to use loops to build your song. This is the loops browser:

How do I use the loops browser?

You can sort loops in lots of different ways! If you click on an instrument, it will only show sounds that use that instrument. You can also sort by genre like hip hop, house, or jazz. Try it!

You can click on the loops to listen to them. Find one that you want to use in your song!

Building Your Song

1

Drag the loop into your song. Once you drop it you can move it around.

2

You can grab the TOP of the loop to make it LONGER.

3

You can grab the BOTTOM on the loop to make it SHORTER.

4

Add loops. Move them around. Change their size. Make your song sound AWESOME!

Your job is to make a song that has at least:

- Eight Tracks
- Forty Eight Measures

Good luck! Don't forget to save your work!

Song Length	Project is at least 48 measures long.	Project is at least 36 measures long.	Project is at least 24 measures long.	Project is at least 12 measures long.
Tracks	Project has at least 8 tracks.	Project has at least 6 tracks.	Project has at least 4 tracks.	Project has at least 2 tracks.
Interest	The project sustains interest through a variety of sections and repetitions and feels complete and satisfactory.	The project sustains interest, but may be somewhat short or leaves a feeling of being incomplete.	The project is too short, and would benefit from further work.	Very little attention to detail makes this a boring song to listen to.
Use of Class Time	Routinely uses time well throughout the project to ensure things get done on time. Works the entire period.	Usually uses time well throughout the project, but may have procrastinated on one thing. Works most of the period.	Tends to procrastinate, but always gets things done by the deadlines. Works some of the time.	Rarely gets things done by the deadlines. Rarely works.
